High school sports retained as school board trims budget

Disregarding the superintendent of school's recommendation to eliminate interscholastic sports at all levels, the SAD #44 school board has decided to retain sports programs at the high school and the middle school. The only portion of the high school sports program eliminated was the cheerleading squads.

Sports funds were saved by cutting out all inter-school sports at the elementary levels and by trimming budgets for sports equipment.

Money was freed-up in the skiing program when Les Otten, owner of Sunday River Ski Resort, offered use of the skiway free-of-charge to Telstar ski teams.

Other budget cuts made, in lieu of wholesale trimming of the sports budget, were additional cuts in the fuel budget, the reduction of a library aide position, and the reduction of one of two special ed teachers. (The position will be partially filled with an aide.)

The board also rejected the superintendent's suggestion to eliminate both portable classrooms scheduled for Crescent Park School. They decided to lease one and put off leasing the other. (See last week's Citizen for the entire list of proposed cuts. After the board approves all the cuts, The Citizen will, next week, publish the entire list.)

Following deliberations last Thursday night and this past Monday night, the school board was still $14,700 away from achieving the ordered $400,000 cut in its original budget. The superintendent was to draw up some more suggested cuts and present them for board discussion next Monday night.

Last Thursday night, at a special school board meeting attended by scores of ardent supporters of the district schools, it was suggested by some that the directors take the budget-cutting order by the voters as an opportunity to look at the overall priorities of the district's educational process.

Les Otten, of Newry, said, "You should take the whole thing apart and see where $3.7 million [the amount authorized by continued on Page Three]

Special meeting set to reconsider cuts in school budget

At the request of 146 petitioners, the school board, Monday night, set Thursday, June 19, for a special district budget meeting to reconsider the school budget approved May 28. The meeting will be in the gymnasium, at 7 p.m.

According to state law, if 100 district voters ask for a meeting to reconsider the school budget, the board must agree to call such a meeting. The petition asks that the $400,000 taken from the originally proposed budget be half restored. The petitioners point out that if $200,000 were restored, the cuts voted on by the school board could be partially restored.

The state law that orders school boards to schedule special district meetings if petitioned to do so also specifies that the number of people at the special meeting must be at least as many as attended the original meeting wherein the budget was approved. In this case, that means 721 voters will have to assemble in order for the special meeting to be able to conduct business on the motion to add an extra $200,000 to the budget.

NOTICE TO ALL

BETHEL AREA BOY SCOUTS

The Pine Tree Council, Boy Scouts of America, and the Maine Guides baseball club have arranged for Boy Scout Day at the Ballpark in Old Orchard, Saturday, June 28, at 7:05 p.m. when the Guides will be playing the Toledo Mud Hens. All Scouts and their families and friends are invited to attend at reduced prices of only $3.50 each. Scouts are to be in uniform. Boys from this area are to have their money in by June 12. Telstar students may take their money to Travis Buck or Jeff Boyle and Crescent Park School students may leave their money with Mr. Craig on Thursday morning before school.

Slightly higher fee will enable a Bethelite to become a fully registered participant, with standby status. For details, available in Bethel on or after Friday, June 20, please phone 824-2151 or stop in at the NTL summer Administrative Office in Bingham Gym.

NOT QUITE IN TIME: The ball (just over his right shoulder) gets past Telstar pitcher Ken Viger, covering the plate, as a Livermore Falls player gets safely home with another run. The Andies won last Wednesday's playoff game, 6-5.

Boys, girls lose in first round of state playoffs

Both the Telstar baseball team and the Telstar softball team lost their preliminary round state playoff games last Wednesday, eliminating them from further competition.

The boys, rated 5th in the Heat ratings, lost a close decision, 6-5, to Livermore Falls, which was rated 12th. Playing on the home field, the Rebels were ahead 4-1 until the fourth inning, when starter Ken Viger had to hold back on his delivery because of a large blood blister that had formed on his pitching hand.

When Alec Newell came in to relieve him in the fifth inning, the Andies had already tied the game.

The Rebels were disappointed, Coach Levi Brown said afterwards, but realize they have a young team and will be back again next year. (More importantly, he said, they learned this season that they can play against anyone, and can beat anyone. They finished with a 10-4 season record.)

The softball team lost their preliminary game to Traip Academy, in Kittery, also by a 6-5 margin. (The preliminary game was first scheduled against Maranacook, as reported in last week's Citizen.)

The 11th-seeded Rebels were having an easy time with 8th-ranked Traip until the bottom of the fifth inning. The Academy girls were able to walk in three runs and score two more off a base hit. Despite a comeback attempt, the Rebels fell short by one run. They finished the season 10-4.

Coach Jim Lunney said his team will be back again as a strong contender next year, with only three players graduating.

Plans well underway for Mollycokett Day '86

Throughout the winter months, the Bethel Lions Club has held several organizational meetings with Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce, Bethel Area Health Center, Bethel Rotary Club, Bethel Fire Department, and the Bethel Recreational Board, formulating this year's Mollycokett day.

Plans have been made that should see Mollycokett Day '86 just as eventful, if not more so, than last year. The date is Saturday, July 19, with the 20th set up as a rain date. This year's theme for Mollycokett Day and the parade is "Notable Inventions" which should give a broad scope for parade floats.

Organizations and individuals to contact for Mollycokett Day events are: Bethel Lions Club, arts and crafts booths—Gene Kelly (824-2686), Fiddlers' Contest, Ed Friel (824-2107), parade, Eldon Greenleaf (824-2040), overall chairman, Peter Anderson (824-2393); Bethel Area Health Center, Western Maine Frog Jumping Contest, Muriel Whitney (824-2856); Rotary Club, Professional Woodsman Competition, Dave Preble (824-2820); Bethel Recreation Board, Children's Events and Games, Kay Zimmer (824-3293) or Jane Rolfe (824-2966).

Brown, Crandall win; Coolidge and Gilbert unopposed as selectmen

The Bethel municipal election results saw newcomer-to-town Dick Crandall narrowly edging Jane Rolfe for one of two school board seats. The other seat was easily held onto by incumbent Merton Brown. Mr. Brown received 585 votes; Mr. Crandall 338 and Mrs. Rolfe 330.

In the selectmen contest, there were two seats to be filled and only two candidates. Incumbent Victor Coolidge received 581 votes while Arthur Gilbert received 501 votes. Both will take seats on the board.

With two assessor's slots to be filled, there was only one assessor candidate—Mr. Coolidge. He got 621 votes. Mr. Gilbert—who had said he would accept a write-in draft—received 48 write-in votes, thus winning the other seat. Stan Howe was the closest other write-in candidate, with 4 votes.

A total of 737 ballots were cast in the municipal election. There are 1552 registered voters in the town.

The Bethel town election was the first part of the town meeting. Town meeting continues tonight (Wednesday), at 7 p.m., in the Gould Academy auditorium, to vote on the warrant articles.

Turnout heavy as local voters veto censorship

Tierney, McKernan picked in primary races

The turnout of local voters was over one-third of registered voters—extremely heavy for a primary election, according to election officials. Seemingly the cause that brought them to the polls was the so-called "obscenity" referendum. It was defeated locally by a wide margin, 1471-660. The local sentiment was mirrored on a statewide basis. The strongest support for the measure locally was in the town of Woodstock, where a local church group had come out strongly in favor of the measure.

Winning gubernatorial primary races at local polls were Democrat James Tierney and Republican John McKernan, also reflecting statewide sentiment.

The closest primary races locally were for register of probate and register of deeds on the Democratic ballot. Jane Rich and Ted Whittier were neck-and-neck for the probate office, while Gayla Pulkkinen held a slim lead over JoAnne Walters for the deeds slot. County-wide, Rich and Pulkkinen won. (See page 3 for a tabulation of local election results.)

Opinions

School budget still high

It seems to be a misconception on the part of some people involved with the schools that the voters who demanded a $400,000 cut in the school budget care nothing about the education of children in SAD #44. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

What the voters were saying was that they wanted quality education for district youngsters, but they wanted it at a fair price.

Keep in mind that the new budget still contains a $200,000 increase (6 percent) over the current year. As one Andover voter said, after being told that some teachers were feeling unloved as a result of the vote to trim the budget increase, "We have no reason to feel guilty about trimming the budget."

Here are some comparative town assessments from four school districts. See if you think they indicate fiscal neglect on the part of SAD #44 voters.

- Andover: SAD #44, pop. 850, school assessment $480,304;
- Canton: SAD #21, pop. 831, assessment $167,451;
- Bethel: SAD #44, pop. 2340, assessment $577,711;
- Dixfield: SAD #21, pop. 2389, assessment $425,502;
- Greenwood: SAD #44, pop. 653, assessment $249,538;
- Hebron: SAD #17, pop. 665, assessment $102,828;
- Newry: SAD #44, pop. 235, assessment $166,654;
- Roxbury: SAD #43, pop. 373, assessment $127,279;
- Woodstock: SAD #44, pop. 1087, assessment $296,825;
- West Paris: SAD #17, pop. 1390, assessment $156,925.

The school board is to be commended for dealing sensibly with the budget cuts. The sports programs at the middle and high school levels are being preserved, while curriculum and plant improvements that can be put on hold for awhile are being put on hold.

Despite the fact that teaching positions have been cut, it seems that the quality of education in the district will not suffer.

The school board did not consider the numerous suggestions to attempt to bring into the budget the $103,000 that it put into reserve for future teacher salary increases. It is likely that the budget—as trimmed—will run out of money in the spring. Before that occurs, the board should negotiate with the teachers to free up that $103,000—which belongs to the district, not to the teachers—in order to be able to allocate it to any budget shortfalls. bfw

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
[The following letter was sent by Louise Robiller, of the Boller Room, to her insurance agent.]

I have been trying to get in touch with you to discuss our increase in liability insurance. You heard about the straw that broke the camel's back—well I feel that I can no longer afford to buy insurance. I hereby cancel our liability policy effective May 1, 1986. Since I was not informed of this increase I do not feel responsible for this debt.

I take great pride in my little restaurant—each cup of soup I make, every bit of cake that is consumed in my fine restaurant I bake, and I am not afraid of what I do.

I work very hard and I would like to have something left over. I am not going to work this hard for nothing, nor will I fear the idiot out there who will sue for whatever reason. Should that happen I will gladly give him my quarter of a million dollar debt and I'll go sailing with Joe.

Louise Robiller

To the Editor:
Who is the Great White Hunter who shot my cat, Capzio? You really had nothing to fear. He's only 10 months old. A simple "Scat" would have sent him on his way.

Sue Farrar

To the Editor:
The following is written by a concerned parent, who is outspoken, yes, but the consensus of opinion in this town is, "Save your breath," they're going to do it anyway, "they won't listen to you." Well, I'll state my opinion, and that's a shame we live in such a narrow-minded community where a budget cut of this nature would be allowed to pass without even a thought of our children's future, or without alternative measures created. I'm appalled at the suggestions of Superintendent of Schools Dewaine Craig (June 4 Bethel Citizen), and even more at the budget cut even being considered in the first place. I'm considering several alternatives for my family, and they include everything from relocation, to private school for my child, who is bright, promising, and creative—and would have all his talents and dreams squelched (by) attending a Backward School System such as this!

Saturday, June 14

1986 has been designated the "Year of the Flag."

In remarks before the House of Representatives, Rep. Coby of North Carolina stated: "By taking the initiative, we will bring renewed understanding and appreciation of our flag. By designating 1986 as the 'Year of the Flag,' we will heighten awareness and interest in the relationship of the flag to our American heritage. We can elevate the flag to its rightful position of honor and understanding."

"The flag is a living symbol of American ideals, traditions and unity. The flag stands for the values and purity of self-sacrifice that have made this country great."

The "Year of the Flag," and Flag Day—1986 in particular, is a great opportunity to renew and enhance the awareness and appreciation of our nation's ideals, traditions, developments and accomplishments which are important to inspiring and guiding our citizenry to carry the American legacy into the future. This can be accomplished by bringing about proper respect and attitude toward the symbol which stands for this heritage—the flag of the United States of America.

4th-graders score near average on statewide tests

According to preliminary results, 4th-graders in SAD #44 scored around the state average on statewide tests administered earlier this year.

The tests were mandated by the Educational Reform Act of 1984, which decreed statewide testing each year of students in grades 4, 8 and 11. The results of the 8th-grade tests were released earlier in the year. The results of the 11th-grade tests will be made available later this summer.

The 4th-grade students, who took their exams in March, were tested in the fields of reading, writing, grammar, math, science, social studies and humanities.

SAD #44 students, compared to students in school districts with similar socio-economic characteristics, did particularly well in reading and humanities and particularly poorly in writing. In the other fields, they scored right around the average of students in districts with similar profiles. The scores are presented below. (The state average on each test is arbitrarily set at 250. In each test, half the students who took the exam scored above 250 and half scored below 250. The test developers suggest that 50 points above or below the 250 mark indicates average performance for a school or district.)

Subject	State avg.	District avg.	Similar districts
Reading	250	260	210-280
Writing	250	205	215-285
Grammar	250	260	220-270
Math	250	230	215-265
Science	250	235	215-265
Soc. Studies	250	250	215-265
Humanities	250	270	215-285

Breaking down the district scores by school, it is clear that Woodstock Elementary School students scored much higher than students at Andover Elementary School or Crescent Park School. (However, the developers of the test point out that the numbers of students taking the test at a small school are too small to give accurate averages. This is because if only a few students take the test, one or two very high or very low scores can completely skew the average of the group. Keeping this in mind, here are the scores by school.)

Subject	Andover	CPS	W'stck
Reading	145	270	280
Writing	135	200	270
Grammar	195	240	375
Math	140	220	300
Science	115	275	135
Soc. Studies	170	250	295
Humanities	120	285	280

The scores of the various school districts can change in the next few weeks if district administrators find fault

Rotary Club notes

For various reasons there has been an absence of Rotary Club news the past few weeks. Perhaps your reporter decided you all needed a rest.

On Tuesday, June 10, the Bethel Rotary Club held its regular luncheon at the Sudbury Inn.

Visiting Rotarians and guests joining with the group on Tuesday were: Al Geronda, Rumford; Dexter Landers, Northfield, Vt.; Dick Libby, guest of John Elliot; and Bill Lowther of Boonton, N.J.

The attendance contest is rolling along in high gear with Team #2 having a slight edge. Dave Preble and Dewaine Craig have come up with a contest that seems to have the attention of the members.

Al Geronda was the lucky winner of the drawing this week.

The program chairman for the meeting was Roger Conant. The guest speakers were Bob and Dot Greaney. The Greaneys have homes in Milas, Spain, and Andover, Maine. The summer months are spent in Andover. Dot talked about the life style and attitudes of the Spanish family in a most interesting manner. The Greaneys are sponsoring a program of youth exchange designed to give 20 young Spanish youths (ages 14-16 years) and their chaperones, an opportunity to visit in the northeastern area of the U.S. and to share in our culture. The program is tentatively scheduled for 1987. A picturesque slide presentation of the village of Milas and its people accompanied the talk.

President Jim announces that the process to select the recipient of the Community Service Award for 1986 has been completed. Five very worthy nominees were recommended by Bethel Rotarians. Margaret Joy Tibbets received the majority vote. A tentative date of July 1 has been set for the presentation of the award. Community members are welcome to attend the presentation following the luncheon. More information will be announced by June 24.

with the way the tests were scored. After this "commenting period" is over, the final results will be released by the state. Statewide, 14,657 4th-graders took the exams, but only 14,012 exams were scored. This is because 300-plus students had handicaps that would have confused the results; another 300-plus missed a portion of the exams.

In SAD #44, 81 students took the exams; 8 were excluded from scoring for various reasons, leaving 73 students who were scored. Among these were 13—or 16 percent—with some learning disabilities. This percent was considerably higher than the 10 percent statewide with learning disabilities who took the exams.

H.E.A.R. Inc. will provide audiologic supervision of the Bethel Area Health Center Industrial Hearing Conservation Program. The Bethel Area Health Center will provide the hearing testing booth and staff at the center will be responsible for scheduling patients.

If you have a hearing problem or require hearing aid services and would find it more convenient to stay with this area, the Health Center would be pleased to evaluate your problem. Please call 824-2193 for an appointment.

UNION REINSTATED

The settlement was reached in the courtroom Monday—at the Maine Law School, in Portland—with Administrative Law Judge Norman Zankel approving the settlement. Negotiators for the union, the company, and the NLRB worked steadily from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. to hammer out the agreement.

According to Bob Pulcini, of the NLRB office in Boston, the settlement has three parts:

- recognition of Local #77 as the bargaining agent for the workers at Stowell's;
- preferential hiring for some former workers of Stowell's;
- some financial settlement for displaced former Stowell workers.

The company and union have one year from the date of the settlement to enter into negotiations on a new contract, Mr. Pulcini added.

He declined to specify how much money the displaced Stowell workers would receive, but said it was a very small sum—in keeping with the cash position of the mill, which has been working hard to come back from foreclosure. Mr. Pulcini added: "It was an amicable gentlemen's agreement, arrived at without rancor, in the best tradition of collective bargaining."

Andover school

In celebration of Arbor Week the A.P.T. of the Andover Elementary School purchased through the Pine State Arboretum, small white spruce trees. These trees were given to the students and staff to plant. Hopefully the meaning of Arbor Day can be reinstated in the school and this can be an annual event.

The fifth and sixth grades went on a field trip to Augusta recently under the direction of Mr. Emery and Mr. Sabin. While there, essay winner Toby Farrington, fifth grader, was greeted by Gov. Brennan in his office.

A "Thank You for Volunteering" tea was held June 6 at 2:30 in the kindergarten room. Many delicious goodies were brought by the staff. This token appreciation is tendered to all A.E.S. volunteers for their involvement during the school year.

On Friday, June 7, the sixth grade class of Roger Sabin enjoyed a trip to Boston. While there they visited the Museum of Science and the Boston Aquarium. They left at 5:30 a.m. and returned later that evening. This trip was funded by the A.P.T. and sixth grade

Authors visit Telstar creative writing class

Recently, Mrs. Taylor's creative writing English class at Telstar was honored to have Sue Farrar and Phyllis Dock as guest speakers.

Sue Farrar shared her experience in writing "Samantha on Stage" with the group. She also explained the difficulties as well as the benefits in publishing her material. She was helpful in answering the many questions the class had dealing with the creative process.

Phyllis Dock contributed the thoughts and ideas that encouraged her to write poetry. Appreciation of her poems by the class was greater after she had read them aloud and related the events which inspired her to write them.

The class would like to extend a sincere thanks to these two inspiring authors who took the time to visit the group and offer their advice and help...thank you!

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS RETAINED

However, the directors mostly reacted to the suggested cuts proposed by the superintendent. Bethel Director Kay Chadbourne pointed out that this was not the best way to go about trimming $400,000 from the budget. "I don't think we can react to the superintendent's list unless we can propose lists of our own." Woodstock Director Eva Twitchell suggested that each board member draw up a list so that ideas could be compared. However this suggestion did not meet with wide approval and was not acted upon.

The way the discussion went, it was clear that the directors were reacting to the superintendent's suggestions.

The reaction was strongest against his suggestion that inter-scholastic sports be cut out completely from the school budget.

"To cut it completely is going to have a devastating effect on the kids," commented Bethel Director Cheryl Elliot.

"I disagree completely (with eliminating sports)," said Andover Director John Foster. "You might as well just close the doors (of Telstar)."

Greenwood Director Nancy Dewing supported the superintendent's idea: "I don't have problem with losing athletics. I do have a problem with losing the school buses." [The superintendent had suggested putting on hold one of two bus purchases.]

A number of commenters were still smarting from the fact that voters had held the budget increase to $200,000, instead of the originally proposed $600,000 increase.

Teacher John Applin said, "I've heard the vote the other night described as a mandate. It was a well-organized effort—and we should have been that well organized."

Newry parent Jackie Cramton said, "We've got to do something to build more support (for higher budgets)."

But Bethel Director Al Barth noted, "The public has spoken, and we have to live with that."

Andover

By LAURA HUTCHINS

As I sit down to write news of the area this morning one sound penetrates above all others—robins calling for rain. The weather report has kept saying we'll get rain, but none here yet. We need it badly.

We had some very disturbed grackles here this week that "chewed us out" in good shape. Without thinking, I put plastic lawn ornaments of a mother duck and three ducklings under the tree where one of the bird feeders hang. Bernard then put some bread crumbs in the feeder. After giving us a terrible scolding, they checked out the ducks from all directions and apparently decided the bread crumbs were worth the chance. They would take great mouthfuls and fly across the road to devour the . It was comical to watch them.

Plans for the Craft Fair on the Common on July 5 are underway. Anyone interested in participating is asked to contact Sharon Hutchins, 292-4351, or Debbie Strout, 392-4942 for further details. It is hoped that this may become an annual event. There have been a variety of craft tables spoken for already and there are more available.

Harold "Buster" Falkenham, Andover, called on Bernard Hutchins one day this week. He says he feels much better, which is good news.

David Witham and daughter, Sabrina, of Las Vegas, Nev.; Mrs. Elaine LaPlaca and son, Joey, of Manakawick, N.J.; and Sylvia Witham of Brunswick, recently spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Orville Meisner, also Mrs. Clarence Smith and family. While here they had the pleasure of seeing five moose. The Meisners and Withams also enjoyed a trip to Rockland where they took the ferry across to Vinalhaven Island.

Herschel Hall, Ashburnham, Mass., is spending a few days in the area fishing and visiting relatives.

Raymond and Justin Hutchins, Andover, were here visiting last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodgkins, Adrienne and Joshua, of Norway, were Saturday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hutchins and brought Bernard a gift of several bulbs and flowers to plant.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hutchins, Gwen, Vicki and Andy, of Andover, were Sunday visitors here. It is always good to see everyone. Time goes so fast and life is so short.

Thomas Learned, Andover, returned home from the Rumford Community Hospital last Monday.

Mrs. Beatrice Dresser, Andover, has returned home from the hospital and is reported gaining.

While in Rumford on business Monday, I saw and spoke with Matthew Elliott, who seems to be recovering well from his recent surgery.

On Tuesday, June 3, a group of Ladies Aid members went to the State of Maine Museum in Augusta. We were met at the

Tri-Town Rescue

The West Paris High School Alumni Association banquet is scheduled for June 14 at the West Paris Grange Hall. Tri-Town will be serving turkey with all the fixings, buffet style.

Training meeting this month is Wednesday, June 25, at Ledgeview. Zeba Weidner is conducting the training on interpersonal communication skills as they affect the scene and follow-up of a difficult call.

Gould lacrosse player named as All-American

John Mendola, of Gould Academy, was recently named to the All-American lacrosse squad. He was the only player from Maine named to the squad.

John led the Gould Huskies in scoring as they won the Maine Lacrosse League Championship. He also won the academy's Banker Award, for lacrosse, at the recent athletic awards assembly.

museum by Mr. and Mrs. William Nupula, who had driven up from Owls Head to join us. Anyone who has not been to this museum should put it on their list of places to see. I had seen the old museum, when it was in the basement of the State House, on an 8th grade graduation trip.

At that time, the most memorable sight was two giant sets of moose horns entangled together, as the moose had died in battle. Now everything is done in a natural setting for the wildlife, birds, animals and plants, with all aspects of what we know as "Maine" being well represented and beautifully done. It was an adventure through time. Those going from Andover were Dorothy Campbell, Ann Fox, Dorothy Lang, and Rev. E. Mariotte Churchill; from East Andover, Vivian Barlow, Dolly Jones, and Laura Hutchins; from Rumford Center, Alice Ramey and Vera Thompson. After our museum excursion, Mr. and Mrs. Nupula also joined us for lunch at one of the Chinese restaurants, before we all departed for home. It was a beautiful day and a worthwhile trip. Our next meeting will be June 17 at the CEB when we will be working on stuffed toys for the August sale. Posters will soon be displayed with our eight weeks of public luncheons listed. We look forward to renewing acquaintances with folks who have frequented the luncheons the past two years. See you there!

THIS WEEK AT THE Moses Mason House

The Bicentennial Dancers of Conway, N.H., were featured at the June monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society. Providing both a history and period costume demonstrations of 18th century ballroom music, the dancers delighted those attending and gave them some insight into life during the American Revolution. Special Projects Chairman Persis Post announced that the refreshments during the evening would include an 18th century favorite, mustard gingerbread.

During the business portion of the meeting President Alden Kennett announced that the next meeting would be held on July 3 and would feature the annual picnic to be held on the back lawn (weather permitting) and will feature Eric Wight speaking on "Indians and Archaeology." The picnic will begin at 6:30 and the meeting at 7:30. The artifact of the month was announced as a new continuing feature in one of the glass cases in the meeting room titled "Recent Acquisitions." It was announced that the Spring Courier is now available and that Randall H. Bennett's book on Oxford County's architecture will be out later in the year. Society Director Stanley R. Howe thanked all those who made the weekend such a success. Much appreciation was extended to the Bethel Savings Bank for its support of the art show and to Diane S. Howe for making the cake for the birthday party. Director Howe also announced that the society had been selected as a site for a regional oral history workshop scheduled for Oct. 11.

New members of the society this week are Charles G. and Kathryn Hamlin of Longmeadow, Mass.; Greta Gould Clifford, Cape Elizabeth; Scott E. and Vena G. Lary of Brewer.

A generous contribution to the society's 1986 Endowment Campaign has been received this week from Dr. Donald M. Christie, Jr., of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

High Street West Paris

By VIVA WHITMAN

What a nice sunny but cool morning after the bad showers and rain. Seems as though that is what we have had the most of lately. Don't know about the rest but I feel water logged from all the rain and humidity that has gone along with it. Not very good weather for those who have the "itis" brothers around, but not much one can do about it, either.

Didn't get anything in the paper this past week as I was a slow poke, I guess. With all I was doing, I just didn't get it done in time to send so will try to bring things up to date.

May 20, I went to the doctor as usual and later in the day, Peggy took the bouquets of flowers to Bethel and decorated graves, also took some of mine and put them on at West Paris as she was going to stop there, too.

Wednesday, May 21 was a three point meeting of Grange at Pleasant Pond Grange and as our Grange was to fill the chairs, Russell, Peggy and I got dressed up and went. Rather wet around but had a good evening just the same. Norway Grange put on the program and everyone took food to help Pleasant Pond with the supper.

Russell and Lawrence were planting the garden the next day. Lawrence helps when he isn't tinkering or something of that sort. He raised some seedlings to plant and had good luck with them. Their glassed-in porch is a good greenhouse. I have gotten meals ready and done some sewing and whatever else I could, but never get all the things done that I want to.

Wendall brought a load of manure for Russell to use on the garden on Friday morning after getting chores done at his place. He has quite a few head of cattle to milk and tend to so it takes time.

We went to town that day and got groceries and went to Pike's Hill Cemetery to decorate my husband's grave and at the cemetery in Norway to put flowers on a grave there. Did some other running around to get errands done and then home.

Was sorry to hear of the passing of a few friends. Lucie Parlin was one of them. She belonged to Paris Grange and so did I some years back and I used to take her to Grange with me. Also called on her a number of times but hadn't gotten to see her since she went to Ledgeview Nursing Home and regret it. That happens so many times when we put off going to see someone or writing. It makes me feel badly as she was such a lovely person.

Grace's father, Albert Skillings, passed away and won't be showing his oxen anymore. He used to have them in the Mollycokett parade most years. They were a sight to see as there aren't many people left who use oxen to work on their farms.

Sunday, May 25, Russell worked in the garden and Peggy was going to visit her daughter and husband, the Whites, in Auburn, so I went with her. They were at the lake so went there and had a good time. Played trionimoes and I got beaten every game. I don't seem to win on those games too often. I play games with Courtney when she comes up to visit and one of them is called Trouble. She can win at that game and it helps her learn numbers when she sees them.

Wynona brought Courtney up to visit for a few days on Monday and we went to see the cows at Wendall's so got some rhubarb there and put it in the freezer for winter. Nonie had taken me to the doctor so Russell could work on the garden or whatever he needed to do. Some of the rains had made gullies down across the garden so had to replant a little. Don't know if the seeds can get through the ground after the pounding rains. Carrots should be up but aren't, so wonder if they will come or not.

Tuesday Peggy helped Russell plant the rest of the gardens. Now we will hope they produce good for us. Of course, it still takes work and plenty of it to keep the bugs from ruining all the plants.

Got outside what I could this week with Courtney here as she loves to go out. There is a tire swing at Lawrence's and she loves to go on it as it gives her a real good swing. She would live outside if she could.

Peggy had visitors the other day. A classmate of hers and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith called. They are both bothered by the "itis" brothers but it was good to see them even though I only had a chance to say "Hi" out the window. Nonie had come to get Courtney and leave Kariann with me until Sunday so was busy. Kariann has been cutting teeth and has been fussy as most babies are when teeth are coming in fast.

Verna Swan and grandson, Benny, called on us for a short visit and then went up to see Peggy's home. We are always glad to see her and wish we could visit with her more often.

Peggy went to visit her youngest daughter, Loretta and family on Saturday night, then went to visit Myrna and husband on Sunday. Russell went with her on Sunday and they had a good visit. Of course, they got showers worse than we did here. During the showers that did so much damage with hailstones, they got small ones about a half inch or little more where in the Sebago area they were so much larger. I was glad we didn't get the hall here to ruin the garden.

Wynona came to get Kariann and had another little girl with her who had been visiting Courtney while her parents took a weekend trip. Courtney likes to have her friend Kim come to visit and they were very good together playing. It was good to see they could share and not fight. They had lunch with me and we did dishes, then Nonie left for home after giving the girls a swing on the old tire swing at Lawrence's. They all seem to enjoy the tire swing.

Grange at Bryant Pond last night so am tired and hope I haven't made many mistakes. Pomona Grange tonight so got to rest some today. Had gone to the doctor yesterday, too, so that helped make me tired.

Speaking of Granges, West Paris

Grange meets Thursday night, June 5, for a three point meeting with Lakeside Grange and Frederic Robie Grange. They are also having a sale again on June 7 which will be from 9 to 1. Food will be on sale and other things, also. This is for the elevator fund and they are doing fine getting the money for it. They are still looking for papers to sell so if you have any, contact Audrey Miller, Herbert Stevens, Mary Lovejoy or some other member and let them know and they will come and get them when out gathering papers. This elevator will be a good thing for those who have trouble getting upstairs and I can appreciate their trying so hard to get one. It will be the kind that you sometimes see at doctors' offices as I understand it. They have to build a new flight of stairs to have it and go by regulations of the state, but it will be worth it.

NOTES FROM Telstar Guidance

This article will pass on to readers the final news of the 1985-86 year from the Telstar Regional High School Guidance Department. It was a school year with its share of ups and downs. Accomplishments and proud moments consistently cropped up on behalf of individual students, student groups, faculty members and parents. On the other hand, the high school experienced its average amount of crises, pressures and challenges. Nevertheless, we all learn from our past experiences.

The Advance Placement program, which offers college level courses for high school seniors, has recently completed its 1986-87 selection process. All three Advanced Placement classes will have larger enrollments. Students and parents will be informed of Advance Placement selection later in June.

Mr. Hart is spending the last days of the school year revisiting all freshmen students in English classes. His presentation involves decision-making skills and resources. All freshmen will be oriented to using the Guidance Information System (GIS) computer. The GIS has 10 files, ranging from occupational information; armed services; vocational schools; two year college; four year college; financial aid and more.

Last Friday, June 6, Ray Leferviere, guidance consultant of the U.S. Navy, provided a well received interpretation workshop to over 25 juniors who took the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB). The ASVAB is an aptitude test, comprising of 8-10 skilled areas. It is free of charge to school systems and students, who use its results in career planning processes for civilian and military occupations.

The Guidance Office also plans to wrap up its third year of Self Group, a weekly self esteem building support group. The Self Group program has grown to the need of two groups; one group for new group members and a group for advanced, experienced group participants. Mr. Hart wishes to acknowledge and thank two senior girls, Martha Bell and Sue Fraser, who assisted with public relations and facilitation of the Self Group.

Mr. Hart also wishes to announce that next school year, the Northern Oxford County Vocational Area (NOVA) will have the highest vocational enrollment ever, from Telstar Regional High School. Twenty-one students will receive training and vocational education in five different programs. The maximum number of enrollments for the five NOVA programs is 21 students. Therefore, Telstar Regional High School is the only high school of four school systems involved with NOVA, having 100 percent enrollment next year.

The Freshmen Awareness Committee at Telstar (FACT) is planning its freshman awareness workshop for next fall. Nearly 50 students from grades 8, 9, 10, and 11 have met over the past two weeks to discuss and plan a workshop for next fall's freshman class. Stay tuned for further details.

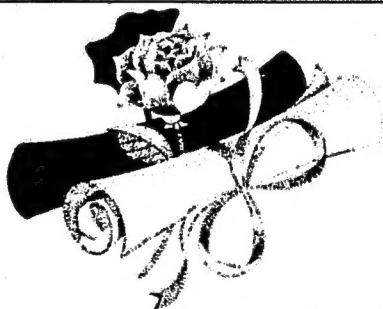

1986-87 class schedules have been delayed in getting to students and parents due to the deliberations and results of the SAD #44 budget cut recommendations. The Guidance Office will mail home schedules of all students once the school board completes its budget cut recommendations. Many classes are still tentative as '86-'87 offerings.

On behalf of Telstar Regional High School, the Guidance Office wishes to express its gratitude to: students; parents; community members; American Legion, Jackson-Silver and Mundt-Allen Posts; The Bethel Citizen; Sunday River Inn; Bethel Area Health Center; Bethel Savings Bank; Sunday River Ski Area; Locke Mills Grocery; IGA; and Charlie's Place for making Telstar a better place for education. Have a nice and safe summer.

Correction: The West Paris-Greenwood Fire Department and Auxiliary supper will be held Tuesday, June 24 not Monday, June 23, as stated last week. It has been a long time since the meetings have been held on Monday, but every now and then your correspondent forgets. I hate to admit that old age is creeping in but it becomes increasingly apparent. I had a very concerned four-year-old ask me the other day if I were old. He has just come to the realization that older people get sick more often and that life on earth is limited so he wants to know about the people that inhabit his corner of it. I told him I was only a little bit old which seemed to reassure him. It's OK to be a little bit old.

The Greenwood Fire Department will hold a training session June 17 at 6:30 p.m. at the Fire Station.

The Greenwood Historical Society met Wednesday, June 4, at the society building on Main Street with 18 present. It was reported that George Haines is working on the building. The shed has had an addition put on and new underpinning on the old section plus a new roof. The society sent a sympathy card to Mrs. Alger. Calvin Coolidge from Bensalem, Pa., formerly of Locke Mills gave the society a framed picture of a bald eagle done in leather. There will be no meeting in July due to the vacation period. There will be a picnic potluck supper at the August meeting at 6 p.m., on the lawn of the society building. Denise Swan furnished the refreshments of the June meeting.

The Greenwood Historical Society will hold an old time dance at the town hall at 8 p.m. on Saturday, June 28.

Frances Davis and Deanne, Newry, visited Lorraine Mills Tuesday. They went to see Ernel Murphy and Vivian and Carolyn Chase in Bethel.

Margery Swan went to see the doctor Monday, June 2, and he reported she is gaining according to schedule. On Tuesday June 3, she went to see her dentist who fixed the teeth that were injured in the accident. On Wednesday Todd Swan had no school due to orientation for the lower classes and Harry Jr. had a doctor's appointment so they all went to Norway and were able to visit Herbert Rowe at the South Paris Health Facility.

Vera Cross, Mary Stone and Charlotte Cole went to the Senior Citizen dinner, Woodstock, Thursday. The grange put on the dinner so Joanne Cole helped in the kitchen. The musical program with Mr. Arey and Mr. Nichols on accordion and banjo was outstanding according to those who attended.

Francis Davis and Lorraine Mills attended a Praise Assembly of God prayer meeting Wednesday evening at the home of the pastor Lyle Van Horn in Mexico in preparation for the evangelistic and healing crusade Thursday and Friday at the Mexico High School. Mr. and Mrs. John Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Davis attended both meetings. Cindy Brown and her mother, Bea Clark, provided the music and Ron George, Australian evangelist, provided the ministry.

Valerie Cole left Saturday to spend ten days as a swim counselor at Aquatic School in Lenox, Mass., before starting her summer job at Cape Cod.

Charlotte Cole has caught two eels in the past two days. She is not too enthused with them. Says she'd rather catch fish.

Gary Dunham, son of Herbert of Rowe Hill, Greenwood, and Sandra Morgan of South Glens Falls, N.Y., has been awarded a teaching fellowship by the Anthropology Department of the University of Virginia for the 1986-87 academic year. The fellowship was unanimously approved by the Anthropology Department on the basis of Dunham's outstanding academic achievement, finishing at the top of his class, during his first year in graduate school. Dunham, a 1978 graduate of Telstar Regional High School and a 1982 graduate of Bowdoin College, is enrolled in a Master's and Doctoral program in North American Archaeology and Anthropology. As a result of the fellowship, he will be teaching Anthropology 101 to college undergraduates. Dunham is employed this summer by the University of Virginia as an archaeologist, excavating prehistoric Indian settlements along the James River.

By GLADYS KILGORE

Mrs. Edna Henley of North Waterford made me a nice call Friday. She always remembers her old friends.

Mrs. Grace Nelson went to Bridgton Saturday for x-rays.

Mrs. Mary Curtis of Groveton, N.H., visited her sister, Mrs. Gladys Plummer Sunday. They went for a ride and had dinner.

Mrs. Albert Nelson and Mrs. Bob Grant attended the graduation of their nephew, Raymond Files at Norway Tuesday evening.

Several of the senior citizens attended the meeting and dinner in South Paris Wednesday. It was a delicious dinner and everyone had a good time.

Bob Tripp went to see his doctor Wednesday. He will have to remain quiet for awhile.

Mrs. Minerva Dudley visited her daughter one day in Naples and saw what the storm of last Sunday did. It ruined her daughter's car and she said the leaves looked as though they had been chopped.

The school house remains as it is as they didn't think the bids that came in were high enough.

CARD OF THANKS

The 5th and 6th grade students of Woodstock Elementary School would like to thank the following people and businesses for their support in making our Boston trip a huge success: Mrs. Lorraine Cyr, Mrs. Floris Robin, Mrs. Terry Merrill, Mr. David Murphy, chaperones, Greenstock Snowmobile Club, Tom's Custom Meats, The Village store, Locke Mills Market Place, Bob's Corner Store, Trap Corner Store, Shop & Save, Shaw's Supermarket, McDonald's, Burger King, Dunkin' Donuts, the townspeople for help and their donations.

Newry

By AMY HANSCOM

Amy Hanscom is a patient at Rumford Community Hospital.

The Newry Church Ladies Circle met at Sylvia Harrington's Monday evening, June 2. A delicious Chinese vegetarian supper was served by the hostesses preceding the business session. The 23rd Psalm was read by a group of seven members. The secretary, Sylvia Harrington, read the notes of the last meeting and they were approved. A card of thanks was received from Louise Tetley. A get well card was sent to Roger and Amy Hanscom. Olive Anderson, the church financial treasurer, brought the finances up to date. Plans were made to go out to supper in the near future. Election of officers was held and the same slate was retained except that the vice president was replaced by Olive Anderson. The next meeting will be on July 7 at Olive Anderson's at 7:30, and it will be a tasting party. The meeting was adjourned and coffee was served.

The following ladies from Newry went bowling June 3: Louise Tetley, Karlene Bachelder, Betsy Clark, Thelma Lowery, Gil Seeley, Boots Morton, Olive Anderson, Eleanor Davis, and Bea Lowell. Louise Tetley was high scorer on single and she tied Karlene Bachelder on the 3 strings.

D. Matthew Wight of Titusville, N.J., was guest speaker at the church Sunday. Title of the message was "Saved." Scripture was from Romans 5:6-21. The children planted seedlings in front of Eagle Rock.

All proceeds from the lawn and bake sale held last Saturday benefitted the Ladies Circle of the Community Church. Thank you to all who donated.

Matthew and Donna Wight and daughter visited his parents, Owen and Sue Wight, over the weekend.

By Win Carrick

The Duesenberg, the jazziest car of the roaring '20s, was the biggest and fastest made in America at that time. Because of its name, many people thought it was German.

Check tire pressure and tread regularly. Follow manufacturer's advice on pressure. Don't let tread go below 1/16th of an inch.

If you drive a subcompact, it may be advisable to turn off the air conditioning when climbing a steep hill. Some products now disengage the compressor automatically to spare the engine.

Now's the time to check cooling system hoses. Any mushy spot could burst when hot coolant runs through under pressure. It's wise to replace both hoses at the same time.

Do it the right way—connect booster cable first to the positive post of the dead battery, then the good one; then clip one end of the second cable to the negative post of the booster battery and the other to the engine block of the stalled car. Remove in reverse order.

Do it the right way—choose YOUR next car from the winners at Carrick Motors, on Rt. 26, in Norway.

The supper on May 31 was super. We had four empty chairs and four people to fill them, but the pots and pans were empty. We even had pea beans for the men folks who don't like Jacob's cattle beans. We are most grateful to all the wonderful people who patronize us and the cooks who prepare all the goodies.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reidy, Tyngsboro, Mass., and her mother, Mrs. Pearl Clough of Deltona, Fla., spent the weekend at the Reidy's trailer and attended the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neale Jr., West Buxton, visited Joe and Eveline Vatcher Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Emery, Trap Corner, was soliciting for the Tri-Town Ambulance fund and leaving life capsules Sunday.

Callers at Lawrence's: Ruby Coffin, Odell Heath, Stevie Millett, Grace Smith, Vera Cross, Joe Kalinowski, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penley Sr., Joe and Eveline Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Card, Gertrude Birney went with Doris Lawrence Tuesday evening to the SAD #44 Adult and Community Education graduation. Nephew Stevie Millett was one of the graduates. A beautiful cake with all the names, brownies and punch were served after the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Isley's grandson, Erin is visiting at the farm and everybody is happy. He is nine months old and a lovely baby.

The Community Club meeting was held at the hall June 4. It was voted not to have a supper in June as it is a busy month with graduations, alumni banquets, weddings and all. Voted to have our next supper on July 26 at 5 p.m. with strawberry shortcakes with real whipped cream and we will be ready with extras.

The members decided to remove the flag pole in the yard as it is getting to be unsafe.

Joe Vatcher is happy. He has been fishing three times this week and the trout were biting.

Woodstock High School alumni banquet will be held June 14 at Telstar cafeteria. Doris Lawrence's class will be

Bill Crooker

BILL CROOKER HONORED

At the June 1 worship service at the First Congregational Church in Andover, Bill Crooker—a devoted Christian, a faithful man and a master builder—was honored.

Rev. Marjorie Churchill presented him with a special plaque created especially for him, which will be hung in the upstairs room; also a cross-stitch embroidery of the sign of the fish, with "Bill" on it, and an inscription done in calligraphy by two loyal church members and a small gift of "gas money" from the parishioners. For the past year Mr. Crooker has spent many hours working in the new kitchen addition and an upstairs room.

The inscription on the plaque reads: "This room in honor of Bill Crooker—a faithful man and a master builder." Also a verse from 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13. "We beseech you, brethren, to respect those who labor among you—and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work."

Rev. Churchill told Mr. Crooker he was a very special person and his good works honored on their 50th anniversary. Eveline's 60th year will be in 1987.

A heavy frost here Monday night froze all of Joe Vatcher's purple pole beans and a few potatoes.

Kathy Williford received news from her husband, Richard, at Dyess AFB, Texas, that he has earned another stripe and as soon as he receives it, he will be T/Sgt. or E-6 Williford.

Mardie Edwards scheduled a country store party early Saturday afternoon, June 14. Tim Edwards and family are spending a vacation there and Tim is doing some of the yard work.

I visited Linda Fuller of South Rumford and her sister, Madeline Worster of North Easton, Mass., who is with Linda for a couple of weeks. En route, I followed a car with a license plate number 1920. I am guessing that was the year of the manufacture of the automobile, which had narrow tires and a wagon seat, and in fact resembled a horse drawn wagon as much as an automobile. It sure looked like a real fun way to go.

The population of Heritage Farm increased Monday by two pigs and four kittens.

Some work has been done this week on Backstreet digging the ditches and smoothing the bumps.

June 2 at pre-dawn the temperature was 28 degrees. I lost a few plants, but most came through fine.

Margaret Mitchell returned home after several days with her sister in Sebago and other family members in the area.

A vehicle drove out of Andover road just as I came along Route 26 from Backstreet. A young deer leaped across the road in front of me perhaps startled by the other vehicle.

and kind deeds will be remembered always.

Mr. Crooker, who was 82 in March, serves as deacon of the church.

He is a widower and resides in East Andover. He has a daughter, Mrs. David (Philea) Chaisson, in Cambridge, Mass., and a son, William Crooker Jr., in Livermore; also nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank these people for being there through my years at Telstar:

Mrs. Taylor for her knowledge, advice, support, caring, time, understanding and for helping me understand myself better;

Mr. Taylor for his patience, his dedication to languages, for helping me learn from my mistakes, encouraging me never to settle for merely satisfactory work and especially for giving me his time;

Mr. Morton for his love of history and for helping me appreciate the importance of the past;

Mr. Hart for his wonderful advice, support and guidance;

Mrs. Marilyn Howe for her advice and her patience at being my sounding board;

Miss Boyce for her friendship and knowledge;

Mrs. Ackley for her friendship, her liberalism and her irreverent sense of humor.

My thanks also to all the other faculty and personnel who have encouraged me and helped make my years at Telstar a time I will always cherish.

Special thanks to friends Merton and Martha Brown for their encouragement, support and concern, and for helping "pay my way through college."

Love, Sarah

Once again I will try to get into the routine of writing my weekly column. It seems as though I get busier and busier as time goes on. I have this feeling that as I get older, I'm not busier, just slower.

Recent callers at the Wardwell Farm have been Helen and Lenwood Ring. Wednesday Arthur and Alice called on Helen and Linwood Ring in Bryant Pond as it was Helen's birthday.

Recent callers at the Barton Farm have been Arthur and Sara Seavey and Randy, Charlie and Edith Barton, and Frank Howard and Mike Inman.

Last weekend Dick and I and Doug and Chris and Elton Cole opened the cottage in Ocean Park for the summer.

Dick and I celebrated our 22nd wedding anniversary on June 2 with dinner in South Paris.

Dan Bennett played in an exchange concert with Rumford Wednesday evening.

Dave Bennett called us from Indiana on Sunday night. He is well, happy and busy.

Callers here this week have been Alberta Ridlon, Clarence French, Ed Emmerson, Margaret Barton, Jeff Barton, Brett Barton and Hugh Stearns.

Last night Dick and I attended the science fair at Crescent Park School.

There was a Circle meeting of the Albany Church last evening. Those wonderful church suppers begin on July 10.

Joe and Muriel Gilbert were in Lewiston and Gorham, N.H., this week. Sunday, Blanche and Rosaire Gagnon, Lil Lauze and Jean Wade of Lewiston/Auburn are expected dinner guests.

John and Karen Tandy, Litchfield, Conn., spent a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gorham. They brought two beautiful big white dogs with them. I think Karen told me when she was here before that the breed was French Pyrenees or perhaps it was Great Pyrenees.

Sandy, Amy and Seth Wilson visited Irene Wilson on Tuesday. Also on Tuesday Irene's cat had septuplets. They are very cute little grey and white kittens. If you are interested in having one, Irene would gladly put your name on the list for reserved kittens.

Brian and I attended the sports awards program at Telstar Thursday evening. Ricky Merrill is the only graduate this year from this community. Congratulations, Rick.

Karl J. Barth of Bethel, a sophomore majoring in management, made the Dean's List for the spring 1986 semester at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N.Y.

GREENWOOD LITTLE LEAGUE

Bethel Red Sox met the Greenwood Little League at Greenwood on June 4. Under the expert leadership of Coaches Craig and Harrington, the pitching staff consisting of Bates, Craig, and Walega was indeed exciting to watch. This fun and capable team scored 13 runs in the first two innings with Greenwood making a brave attempt at catching up. Despite a powerful triple by first baseman Brandon Moore, Greenwood lost 14-17. Both these teams are well matched and are looking forward to their next game in July.

Monday, June 9, brought a "natural" disaster to the Greenwood team when they traveled to West Paris. The natural abilities of their pitching staff were no match for Greenwood; with Coach Bill Roberts finally putting catcher Scott Higgins on the mound and re-shuffling other players. But Greenwood showed little ability to out-run, out-hit, or out-pitch the very strong West Paris players with a devastating score of 5-23 West Paris.

On Wednesday, June 11 Greenwood meets the Bethel Braves at Bethel for a re-scheduled game. Hopefully, Greenwood will come back to even up their record or at least have a closer scoring game.

The Greenwood Little League had a field-work day on Saturday, the 7th. A very few people got an "awfully" lot done. Special thanks to John Chase, Terry Hathaway, and Bill Roberts and to the Town of Greenwood for the use of its heavy equipment.

Upcoming games: June 16, Rumford Point at Greenwood; June 18, Bryant Pond at Greenwood; June 23, Bethel Braves at Greenwood.

RAILROAD MUSEUM OPENS

The Bethel Area Steam Era Railroad Museum opened June 5 for the season. The museum hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Irene "Nonie" Pike will staff the museum on weekends. Volunteers are needed to staff the museum Monday through Friday.

A number of fund-raising projects are scheduled to help the museum. Museum memberships are for sale for $5 per person for the year. Membership entitles one to the newsletter, a 10 percent discount on museum purchases, and the annual Ed Quinn Railroadiana lecture, which was held last Saturday at The Sudbury Inn.

Other fund-raising activities will include a dance, sales of glass mugs at local restaurants, and possibly a "toll crossing" day.

EMILY LANE

Graveside services for Emily Lane will be held Thursday, June 12, at 2:30 p.m. at the Upton Cemetery.

MSAD #44

Directors' meeting

The SAD #44 Board of Directors held a regular meeting on Monday evening of this week in the library at Telstar Regional High School.

The board denied a request of a member of Telstar's senior class who is 3/4 of a credit shy of the 20 required for graduation, to march with the class at commencement exercises.

The board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Nancy M. Harlow, elementary special education resource room teacher, and Mrs. Jodi Keniston, special education instructional aide at Telstar Middle School. Both resignations are effective at the close of the current school year.

The directors approved the following for the 1986-87 school year: Mrs. M. Jane Murn as a business education teacher at Telstar Regional High School; and Miss Robin L. Dempsey as kindergarten teacher at the Woodstock Elementary School.

Following a disciplinary hearing held in executive session, the board expelled a Telstar student found to be guilty of arson (i.e., setting fire to a poster hanging in the upstairs hallway at the school). Before seeking re-admission to the school the student must complete counseling sessions.

A request for termination of school attendance by a 15-year-old eighth grade student at Telstar Middle School was approved by the directors.

The board approved a project to be undertaken by Company C1334 Engineer Battalion, Maine Army National Guard, at the Telstar site. The work will involve changing the grade of the middle school playing field. Plans are that the surplus material removed from the project site will eventually be utilized at the upper athletic field to enable the construction of a 400 meter running track at a future date. The work is scheduled to be undertaken by the National Guard between June 14 and 25 of this year.

The request of the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce to utilize the Telstar Regional High School parking lot for performances of the "Old Tyme

The board acknowledged the receipt of a petition by 146 voters of SAD #44 requesting a special district meeting to restore $200,000 in authorized expenditures for fiscal year 1987. The directors set the date, time and location of the special district meeting as Thursday, June 19, at 7 p.m. in the Telstar gymnasium.

Continued discussion was held on cutting expenditures for FY 1987 as a result of the $400,000 budget reduction at the May 28 annual district meeting. (See separate article.) A special meeting of the SAD #44 board was scheduled for June 16 at 7 p.m. in the Telstar library.

Board members not present Monday evening: Darlene Hall of Andover, and Sheryl Wilbur of Woodstock.

The next regular session of the SAD #44 directors is scheduled to be held at the Andover Elementary School on Monday, June 23, at 7:30.
